ABOUT STUDENT TEACHING ABROAD

Ashland University's College of Education's Cross-Cultural internships in Teacher Education (CITE) Program offers pre-service teachers the opportunity to complete their student teaching requirement internationally. Students are assigned to an international school that utilizes English as the language of instruction. CITE offers a unique opportunity for students to expand their multicultural awareness and understanding. Candidates may be prospective teachers for the following licensure areas: Early Childhood, Middle Childhood, Adolescent/Young Adults, Intervention Specialist, Multi-Age. Students teach for 7 weeks abroad and 7 weeks in the USA.
