ABOUT GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES: LONDON

Travelling to London, England will afford students the opportunity to observe, critique, and acquire best practices in teaching, assessment, curriculum, etc. from different educational systems. Participants will have opportunities to dialogue and interact with teachers, students, and administrators at schools visited. Additionally, this immersion experience will provide student educators with opportunities to study local cultures and educational sites with a view of collating their findings and literature in a research paper within the expectations of EDUC 788 Inquiry Seminar. *This study-away experience is offered as an optional and additional experience within the EDUC 788 class.

ESTIMATED PROGRAM COST

PROGRAM COST: approx. $3,599 (Increased airline fuel charges could raise price)

INCLUDED: Roundtrip airfare from Columbus to London Heathrow, airport transportation in London, public transportation passes in the form of two 7-Day London Visitor Travel Cards, accommodations for 13 nights and international health insurance.

NOT INCLUDED: Three credit hours of AU tuition (for EDUC 788), expenses for passport, trip interruption/cancellation insurance, meals (approx. $1000), events not included (approx. $50) and personal expenses.
