ABOUT COE IN TAIWAN

College of Education students are presented with a one-of-a-kind opportunity through the COE in Taiwan program. Students will spend six weeks at Providence University in Taichung, Taiwan while earning 6 credits (Chinese language and EDFN 250: Global Pedagogy- Schooling Across Borders in the 21st Century). EDFN 250 seeks to understand the role of culture and its influence on the creation of state supported systems of education and pedagogical approaches.

Masters of Education students earn credit for Chinese language and EDUC 640: Special Topics—Improving Math & Literacy Instruction for Diverse Learners. This course seeks to understand how pedagogy and culture interact to influence the teaching and learning of Math and Literacy in K-12 education.

Providence University will coordinate several school visits.
