► Brief Description

The Ashland University Ambassadors is a program designed to connect U.S. American students with international students. Students Ambassadors will be matched with new international students and help them acclimate to the Ashland community. This is a two-semester commitment involving weekly meetings and monthly socials. Students can earn $500 per year in Global Education Scholarship credit. This is a great opportunity for all those involved to connect with other cultures, broaden their global perspective, and build new relationships.
